

Boy Scout Participation Needed!

Annual Chuck Wagon Festival

Saturday, May 24 and Sunday, May 25, 2025

Festival Hours: 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

The National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum in Oklahoma City marks 58 years in existence this summer and for half of those years it has played host to an award-winning festival. The Annual Chuck Wagon Festival on May 24 and 25 welcomes newcomers and those who count the festival as part of their Memorial Day Weekend tradition. The thousands who flock to the festival will include fans who have attended every one since 1991 as well as those who remember attending as children and now share it with new generations.

Scouts are needed to assist in the children's activity areas. Troops will camp and admission is free. Food is provided for the Scouts staying overnight: Saturday lunch and dinner, Sunday breakfast and lunch. Overnight camping for approximately 80 pre-registered Last Frontier Council Boy Scouts and their leaders. Scouts who help at the Festival will receive service hours.

Saturday evening Campfire with Cowboy Jim Garling.
