“Have you ever gone through a season when you couldn't see any evidence that things were going to get better?”

Hope is not pretending everything is okay.

Biblical hope says:

“I may not know what God is doing, but I know enough about God to keep trusting Him.”

Discussion:

1. What similarities do you see between Noah's culture and ours?
2. How do you remain faithful when the culture around you is moving in another direction?
3. What does “walking with God” look like for a man today?

Faith Before You See

Discussion:

1. What “ark” might God be asking you to build right now—something requiring obedience before you see the outcome?
2. Is there something you know God wants you to do that you've been postponing?
3. How has your definition of usefulness changed as you've gotten older?

Obedience Doesn't Immediately Make Life Easier

Hardest Part Is Waiting

The Olive Leaf — Hope Often Arrives Small

Could you be someone else's olive leaf?

Noah Comes Out of the Ark — What Does He Do First?

The Rainbow — God's Promise Is Greater Than Our Storm

Our hope ultimately rests not in the strength of our commitment to God but in the strength of God's faithfulness to us.

Noah Wasn't Perfect

The Five Big Lessons:

1. Walk with God when others don't.
   Genesis 6:9
2. Obey God before you understand everything.
   Genesis 6:22
3. Trust God when all you can see is the storm.
   Genesis 7:17–24
4. Look for God's olive leaves while you're waiting.
   Genesis 8:11
5. Remember God's faithfulness—and keep walking with Him.
   Genesis 9:12–17
6. You are never too old for God’s next assignment.
